Division Avenue, Fort Knox, KY 40122, 6 June 2012

4 December 2010, Headquarters, 86th Infantry Brigade Combat Team and its subordinate units displayed exceptionally meritorious service while serving as Task Force Wolverine in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. The unit exceeded all expectations, planning and executing Combined Action Counter Insurgency Operations across six provinces: Parwan, Bamyán, Kapisa, Laghman, Nuristan and Nangarhar. The unit's assistance allowed the Government of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan to develop its ability to deliver security, economic development and good governance to the people of Afghanistan. Task force elements partnered with Afghan National Security Forces in the Regional Command-Capital, enhancing their capabilities and providing critical logistical support to United States and Coalition forces. Assigned responsibility for the operation of Bagram Airbase, the unit ensured the safety and security of the 30,000 residents of Bagram Airfield, provided life support and managed base construction and expansion, all while working to minimize the impact of the base on its Afghan neighbors. Task Force Wolverine worked shoulder to shoulder with the Afghan National Security Forces and their partners in the Government of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan to improve Afghan capabilities and to show the Afghan people that the government is the only option for a stable and prosperous Afghanistan. The unit's exceptionally meritorious service is in keeping with the finest traditions of military service and reflects great credit upon itself and the United States Army.
