Announcement is made of the following award:

Award: Army Superior Unit Award

Period of service: 1 October 2011 to 30 September 2012

Authority: AR 600-8-22, paragraph 7-16

Reason: During the period 1 October 2011 to 30 September 2012, the United States Army Joint Munitions Command and the cited units displayed exceptionally meritorious service in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. The units supplied America's Warfighters with the right ammunition at the right place, on time, every time and went above and beyond expectation. The success of the mission was accomplished by the management at Joint Munitions Commands Headquarters, Rock Island, Illinois, through a network of ammunition installations accomplishing ammunition production, storage, supply, maintenance, demilitarization and training. The units' personnel around the Nation were untiring in their dynamic efforts to continually improve support to the Warfighter and the information requirements of their leadership. Through their accomplishments the units enabled success throughout the missions of Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation New Dawn in Afghanistan and Iraq and demonstrated an unflinching determination to stand in support of those in harm's way. The United States Army Joint Munitions Commands performance of duty is in keeping with the finest of traditions of military service and reflects distinct credit upon themselves, the cited units and the United States Army.

PERMANENT ORDERS, 092-06 U.S. Army Human Resources Command,
1600 Spearhead Division Ave., Fort Knox, KY 40122, 2 April 2014

Additional Instructions: This order serves as official notification that a unit award has been approved for the organization(s) listed above and will serve as authority for eligible Soldiers to update their records and wear the award. The award is still subject to final confirmation in Department of the Army General Orders. Official verification of a specific unit's entitlement to display the award in the form of an appropriate streamer on its flag or guidon rests with the U.S. Army Center of Military History (CMH), which is also responsible for determining official unit Lineage and Honors for MTOE organizations. CMH will use this permanent order to authorize the manufacture of an appropriate decoration streamer for any organization clearly entitled to display the award. The streamers will then be manufactured and sent to the U.S. Army Human Resources Command for automatic distribution to the units concerned. It is not the responsibility of HRC to replace streamers that are lost or damaged. Please refer to AR 840-10 for further guidance regarding the responsibilities of the unit concerning the display, care and disposition of the streamers.
