Reason: For exceptionally meritorious service. The unit's unprecedented success in the areas of force reception, personnel strength accounting, casualty operations, patient tracking, and postal operations ensured that the entire coalition force received quality personnel support in a most inhospitable theater. Under austere and hostile conditions, in an operationally challenging environment, the unit moved and delivered unprecedented amounts of mail as well as maintained personnel strength accountability, provided accurate personnel strength reporting, and conducted highly professional casualty reporting, ensuring commanders and families were kept informed of all casualty information.
