PERMANENT ORDER 095-10

5 April 2013

United States Army Training and Doctrine Command Band

Announcement is made of the following award:

Award: Army Superior Unit Award

Period of service: 1 May 2011 to 30 April 2012

Authority: AR 600-8-22, paragraph 7-16

Reason: For exceptionally meritorious service. During the period 1 May 2011 to 30 April 2012, the United States Army Training and Doctrine Command Band displayed superior performance of a difficult and challenging mission. The unit simultaneously performed over 399 musical missions, prepared for and completed a Base Realignment and Closure ordered move from Fort Monroe, Virginia to Fort Eustis, Virginia. Establishing new policies and procedures associated with joint base business practices while reorienting band support across the United States Army Training and Doctrine Command. Despite a 30 percent turnover of personnel and obstacles resulting from relocation challenges, the unit increased its levels of support by eight percent from the previous year in support of the Commanding General's strategic campaign. The unprecedented and extraordinary mission accomplishment of the United States Army Training and Doctrine Command Band reflects great credit upon each Soldier, the United States Army Training and Doctrine Command and the United States Army.

Format: 320

Additional Instructions: This order serves as official notification that a unit award has been approved for the organization(s) listed above and will serve as authority for eligible Soldiers to update their records and wear the award. The award is still subject to final confirmation in Department of the Army General Orders. Official verification of a specific unit's entitlement to display the award in the form of an appropriate streamer on its flag or guidon rests with the U.S. Army Center of Military History (CMH); which is also responsible for determining official unit Lineage and Honors for MTOE organizations. CMH will use this permanent order to authorize the manufacture of an appropriate decoration streamer for any organization clearly entitled to display the award. The streamers will then be manufactured and sent to the U.S. Army Human Resources Command for automatic distribution to the units concerned. It is not the responsibility of HRC to replace streamers that are lost or damaged. Please refer to AR 840-10 for further guidance regarding the responsibilities of the unit concerning the display, care and disposition of the streamers.
