| Positions that represent windows of opportunities for career personnel to complete diverse assignments across multiple echelons. The sequence of positions is not as important as mastering critical skills and gaining experience before the next stage of career development. | Identified behaviors, knowledge, skills, and abilities that directly and positively impact the success of employees and organizations. Competencies can be objectively measured, enhanced, and improved through coaching and learning opportunities. Competencies are broken into three categories: | Training and education that focus on methods to support decision-making, quick thinking, and sound judgment, and ways to accelerate the development of Army leaders by improving interpersonal and team-building skills. The goal is to leverage cognitive and instructional technologies in ways that improve critical thinking skills needed by current and future leaders. Also focuses on enhancing leadership styles and skills in order to improve leader qualities as well the Core Leadership Competencies and Essential Supervisory Skills. | Activities and programs designed to increase knowledge and skill, through certified and consistent education in a profession. Competitive Professional Development (CPD) programs boost the individual's career through developmental assignments, experiential learning, continuing education, workshops and seminars, and working with experienced professionals. Competitive Professional Development programs strengthen and augment the employee's skills while building their expertise. | Training that combines general education classes, career-related coursework and developmental assignments/on-the-job learning. Through this combination employees can apply classroom instruction and professional behaviors to real-life situations. | Academic studies endorsed by the Army that provide the ability for an employee to pursue an academic degree (college, university) related to one's current career field through a competitive process. | Certifications and/or licenses required from a professional society or by law to validate an individual's ability and knowledge to perform one's official duties. |
| | Leadership Competencies | | | Training that supports an employee's ability to develop required soft skills to satisfactorily perform their assigned duties. | | |
| | Knowledge, skills and abilities that enable the leader to be innovative, adaptive and able to lead successfully in uncertain and complex operating environments. | | | Functional Training | | |
| | Functional Competencies | | | Training that combines general education classes, career-related coursework and developmental assignments/on-the-job training that relate specifically to employees' job series and occupational discipline. | | |
| | Specific knowledge and skills necessary to perform one's tasks at a high level of accomplishment, in addition to understanding of any legal requirements related to one's field of expertise, and the institutional savvy necessary to attain objectives. | | | | | |
| Core Competencies | General knowledge, skills and capabilities, central to the success of the career program and required to perform one's task at a certain level. | | | | | |
