

Lesson 4 Quiz

Directions: Answer the following multiple choice, true/false and fill in the answer questions.

1. The resumption of unrestricted German _____, the interception of the _____, and growing concern over the German atrocities committed against _____ drew the United States to the precipice of entry into the war.
2. America entered the war on the side of the Central Powers due to successful British propaganda as well as cultural and financial ties.

Circle One: TRUE or FALSE

3. On what date did President Wilson give a war message to Congress addressing the reasons the United States should declare war on Germany?
 - A. January 1, 1914
 - B. February 27, 1916
 - C. April 2, 1917
 - D. June 6, 1919
4. With the world around them at war, American debate over entering the conflict often centered on:
 - A. The issue of military preparedness
 - B. The advisability of making loans
 - C. Selling arms overseas
 - D. All of the above

5. Many Americans feared that a large domestic army would threaten American democracy and that an expanded arsenal would menace other countries.

Circle One: TRUE or FALSE

6. The American fear of militarism reinforced antagonism toward _____, a well-armed and authoritarian monarchy.

- A. Mexico
- B. Britain
- C. Germany
- D. Belgium

7. Which of the following was NOT something war opponents believed might draw Americans into an expanded conflict:

- A. The greed of munitions makers who stood to profit from war
- B. The war would be over quickly
- C. The inevitable loss of American lives
- D. The drain on the economy that going to war would bring
- E. The financial interest of bankers making loans during the war

8. As the United States entered into World War I, the American public was told “Every citizen needs to declare himself American – or traitor!”

Circle One: TRUE or FALSE

9. In 1917 this term was used to describe the phenomenon that one in every three Americans had either been born abroad or had at least one foreign-born parent and could be used to characterize a bridge between two cultures or a measure of divided loyalties.

Answer: _____

10. In his address to Congress calling for a declaration of war, President Wilson declared that “the world must be made safe for _____.”

Lesson 4 Quiz- KEY

Directions: Answer the following multiple choice, true/false and fill in the answer questions.

1. The resumption of unrestricted German submarine warfare, the interception of the Zimmermann Telegram, and growing concern over the German atrocities committed against Belgians drew the United States to the precipice of entry into the war.
2. America entered the war on the side of the Central Powers due to successful British propaganda as well as cultural and financial ties.

Circle One: TRUE or FALSE

3. On what date did President Wilson give a war message to Congress addressing the reasons the United States should declare war on Germany?
 - A. January 1, 1914
 - B. February 27, 1916
 - C. April 2, 1917
 - D. June 6, 1919
4. With the world around them at war, American debate over entering the conflict often centered on:
 - A. The issue of military preparedness
 - B. The advisability of making loans
 - C. Selling arms overseas
 - D. All of the above

5. Many Americans feared that a large domestic army would threaten American democracy and that an expanded arsenal would menace other countries.

Circle One: TRUE or FALSE

6. The American fear of militarism reinforced antagonism toward _____, a well-armed and authoritarian monarchy.

A. Mexico

B. Britain

C. Germany

D. Belgium

7. . Which of the following was NOT something war opponents believed might draw Americans into an expanded conflict:

A. The greed of munitions makers who stood to profit from war

B. The war would be over quickly

C. The inevitable loss of American lives

D. The drain on the economy that going to war would bring

E. The financial interest of bankers making loans during the war

8. As the United States entered into World War I, the American public was told “Every citizen needs to declare himself American – or traitor!”

Circle One: TRUE or FALSE

9. In 1917 this term was used to describe the phenomenon that one in every three Americans had either been born abroad or had at least one foreign-born parent and could be used to characterize a bridge between two cultures or a measure of divided loyalties.

Answer: Hyphenated Americans

10. In his address to Congress calling for a declaration of war, President Wilson declared that “the world must be made safe for democracy.”